

Miscellaneous Canons

1. The shove-around (Modern anonymous)

2. Alleluia (Boyce)

3. Miserere mei (Sweelinck)

1. The shove-around

Four-part

Source Text: Unknown

Anon (circa 1999)

1 2 4

There's a girl that I love has— gi - ven me the shove, she—says I am too low for her sta - tion, She says "Poor men are 12 14

6 8 10 2

fools." O - ver rich men she drools, so it's rob a bank or take up the 16 18 20

pools.* I can - not sleep, life goes on and on, I've star - ted ta - king

22 24

Mog - ga - don** and love's a sick - ness doc - tors can't treat. Where—does she sleep? Where— does she live? Her place of work to me she did - n't

26 28

30 ***

e - ver give and now I find I miss the love she takes but won't de - li - ver!

* In England, this is a popular form of gambling based on the results of football matches

** A proprietary sleeping tablet of great efficacy, we are reliably informed

*** At this point a verbal surprise occurs when the round is sung fully in parts.